

ParsNegar can only run under the English or west European versions of Windows.

If you have the English or west European version of Windows, you may have the regional setting on your PC set to be non-western. Please follow the screen shots below to change these settings to English or one of the west European languages, such as French, German, and Swedish etc.

Click on OK to exit out of all Windows.